

Detailed Table of Contents

Preface

Introduction by Michael Berkow

Chapter One: An FLSA Primer

The FLSA

- History and Public Policy

- Legal Interpretation of the FLSA

- Scope of this Book

- Organization of this Book

- FLSA Basics

 - FLSA

 - Eligibility and Exemptions

 - Law Enforcement “Off-the Clock” or “Off-Duty”

Work Overtime Claims

- Other Law Enforcement FLSA Issues and Claims

- Special Rules for Law Enforcement

- Computing Overtime Pay

- Management and Supervisory Responsibilities

- Retaliation and Practical “Downstream

Consequences”

- Remedies

- Enforcement

- Statutes of Limitations and Recovery Periods

- The Basic FLSA Overtime Pay “Formula”

Chapter Two: Coverage and Exemptions

- Burden and Standards of Proof for Exemptions

- General Exemptions

 - Small Department Exemption

 - All Employees Are Counted

 - Workweek by Workweek

 - “Partial” Exemptions

 - Other General Exemptions

- Exclusions from Coverage

 - Sovereign Immunity

Tribal Police
Federal Criminal Investigators
Trainees and Interns
Interns
Similar to School
Benefit of Trainee/Intern
No Displacement of Employees
No Immediate Advantage
No Job Entitlement
No Wages
Trainees vs. Employee Training
Volunteers
Inmates

Individual Exemptions

“White Collar” Exemptions
White Collar Exemptions Generally
Salary Level Test
Salary Basis Test
Receives Each Pay Period
Predetermined Amount
Guaranteed Minimum
Payroll Notations
Compensation
All or Part of Compensation
Employee by Employee
Deductions from Salary
Irrelevant Deductions
Reductions from “Premium Pay”
Non-Financial Deductions
No Work
Permissible Reductions from Salary
Normal Paycheck Deductions
Initial and Terminal Weeks of Employment

Personal Absences
Absences for Sickness or

Disability

Disciplinary Suspensions
Absences for Military

Leave, Jury Duty, or Court Appearances

FMLA Absences
Consequences of Salary Basis Test

Violations

Window of Correction
Timing of

Reimbursements

Safe Harbor

Duties Tests

Only Specified Exemptions Exist
All Qualifications Must Be Met
Actual Duties
Primary Duty
Application
Some “Shortcuts”

Executive Exemption

Customary and Regular Supervision
Two or More Employees
Authority Over Job Status of Other

Employees

Management Duties
Management as Primary Duty
“First Responders”
Law Enforcement Applications

Administrative Exemption

Preliminary Reminders
“Office or Nonmanual” Work
“Related to” Management or General

Business Operations

“Production” Work Distinguished
Examples
“Of the Employer”
“Substantial Importance” “Directly” Related “Discretion or Independent Judgment on Matters of Significance”

“Skill” Distinguished
Clerical Work
Computer Professionals
No Employee Is Exempt “Just Because”
S/he “Works With” Computers

Job Titles
Educational Requirements
Examples
Hourly Pay for Computer Professionals

Chapter Three: Work

Work and Compensable Work
Work Generally
Work Activities
 Meal Periods
 Roll Calls
 Early to Work and Late After Work
 Home Work
 Equipment Maintenance
 K9 Care
 Vehicle Maintenance
 Gun Maintenance
 Uniform Cleaning
 Other Law Enforcement Gear
Training
 Off-Duty
 Voluntary
 Directly Job-Related
 No Productive Work
 Independent Training and “Special Situations”
 What Portion of Training is Work
 Recruit Training
 “Higher Law Exception”
 Conditions of Employment
 Non-Job-Related Training Time
 Physical Fitness Training
“On-Call” Time
Travel
 Commuting
 Travel “All In a Day’s Work”
 Work While Traveling
“Donning and Doffing”
Court Appearances
Charitable Activities
Medical Attention

Internal Affairs

Chapter Four: Compensable Time Worked

On-Duty

“Continuous Workday Rule”

First and Last Work Activities

Continuous

Suffer or Permit

Knowledge and the Duty to Inquire

Control the Work

Prohibiting Overtime Work

Illustrative Case Study

Exclusions and Exceptions

Who “Owns” Time Worked?

Substitution and “Shift Swapping”

Joint Employment and Dual Employment

Joint Employment

“Moonlighting” and “Special Details”

“Special Detail Rule”

Dual Employment

“Occasional and Sporadic” Work

Different Capacity

“Unpaid Volunteering”

Same Type of Services

Ignoring Work Time

Rounding

De Minimis Doctrine

Off-Duty Time Only

Impractical to Ascertain

Irregular Time

Uncertain and Indefinite Times

Trivial, In the Aggregate

Law Enforcement Applications

Waivers and Agreements

Section 203(o)

Section 254

Commuting Time

Meal Periods

Off-Site Work

Agreement

Voluntary
Reasonableness Generally
Reasonable Amounts of Time

Chapter Five: Overtime

Overtime Work
Overtime Thresholds
All Time Worked Counts
Time Not Worked
Specified Period
“Vesting”
Schedule Adjustments
Overtime
FLSA Overtime “Trigger”
“FLSA Overtime” vs. “Other Overtime”
Section 207(k)
 Government Employment Only
 “Sworn” Personnel Only
 Work Periods
 “Claiming” Section 207(k)
 Uses of Section 207(k)
 “Gap Time”

Chapter Six: Computing Pay

Computing Wages Generally
Regular Rates Generally
 Hourly Employees
 Salary for “Fixed” Hours
 Salary for “Fluctuating Hours”
 Fluctuating Schedules
 “Fixed” Salary
 Clear Understanding
 Overtime Payments
 Pay Computations
 Salary for “Varying” but Not “Fluctuating” Hours
Wage Augments Generally
 Excludable Wage Augments
 Included Wage Augments
 Allocations
 Timing

- “Gap” Time
- Different Rates
 - “Blended” Rates
 - Section 207(g)
 - Different Kinds of Work
 - Different Rates
 - “Hourly” Rate
 - Established
 - Bona Fide
 - Agreement
 - Overtime
 - Overtime Rates
 - Overtime Computations
- Credits and Offsets
 - Timing
- “Rule of Thumb”

Chapter Seven: Paying Wages

- Paying Wages Generally
 - How Paid
 - “Free and Clear”
 - Deductions From Pay
 - Time of Payment
 - Retroactive Pay
 - Late Pay

- Compensatory Time
 - Comp. Time Generally
 - Agreement
 - Contents of Agreements
 - Maximum Accruals and Caps
 - Buying-Out Comp. Time
 - Cashing-Out Comp. Time
 - Forced Use
 - Use of Comp. Time, Generally
 - Requests to Use
 - Notice
 - Unduly Disrupt Operations
 - Choice of Dates
 - Choice of Leave

Record Keeping
“FLSA Comp. Time” Versus “Other Comp. Time

Chapter Eight: Defenses to FLSA Overtime Claims

Exemptions

Not an “Employee”

Civilian “Volunteers”

“Voluntarily” Performing Services for the Same

Employer

Services for Different Employers and the “Special

Detail Rule”

Activities are Not Work

Activities are not “Compensable” Work

Suffer or Permit

Knowledge

Violation of Policy

De Minimis Doctrine

“Estoppel” Defenses

Acceptance of Improper Wages

Agreeing to Improper Pay

Failure to Demand Overtime Pay

False Time Records

Industry Customs

Settlements and Waivers

Financial Inability to Pay

Failure to Exhaust Remedies

How Much Work?

“Actual” Time Worked

Reasonable Time and “785.23 Agreements”

Computational Defenses

Credits and Offsets

Counterclaims

“Good Faith” Defenses

“Good Faith” Generally

“Good Faith Defense” to Liquidated Damages

Good Faith

Duty to Investigate

Objectively Reasonable Basis

Reliance on Authority as a Defense (Section 259)

Written Authority

Interpretation By the Administrator
 Regulation, Order, Ruling, Approval, or Administrative Practice or Enforcement
 Policy In Effect at the Time
 In Reliance On
 In Good Faith
 In Conformity With
 Statutes of Limitations and “Willful Violations”
 “Vesting”
 “Equitable Tolling” and “Equitable Estoppel”
 Non-Willful Violations
 Willful Violations
 Duty to Inquire
 Mistakes of Law
 Willful Violations and Liquidated
 Damages
 Statute of Limitations in FLSA Retaliation Cases
 Sovereign Immunity
 States only

Chapter Nine: Retaliation and Discrimination

Protected Activity
 “Formal” or “Informal” Complaints?
 Starting “Any” FLSA Proceeding
 Being a Witness
 Other Protected Activities
 “Any Employee”
 “Any Person”
 Prohibited Conduct
 Discharge
 Wage Reductions
 Harassment
 Former Employees
 Retaliatory Lawsuits
 “Because Of”
 Knowledge
 The Seventh Circuit’s “Good Worker Rule”
 Defenses to FLSA Retaliation Claims

- Legitimate Reasons
 - Pretext
 - “Mixed Motives”
- Statute of Limitations
- Damages in Retaliation Cases

Chapter Ten: Enforcement and Remedies

- FLSA Overtime Lawsuits (Section 216[b])
 - Jurisdiction
 - Multiple Plaintiffs and Collective Actions
 - Litigation Procedures
- Arbitration
- Remedies and Damages (Overtime Claims)
 - Back Pay
 - Determining Time Actually Worked
 - Each Work Period Stands Alone
 - Credits and Offsets
 - Liquidated Damages
 - Attorneys’ Fees and Court Costs
 - Taxation of FLSA Recoveries
- Potential Personal Liabilities
 - “Employer”
 - Punitive Damages

Appendices:

- A. Record Keeping
 - Content of Records
 - Nonexempt Employees
 - Exempt Employees
 - Records Retention
 - Form of Records
 - Storage of Records
 - Inspection of Records
 - Posting Notices
 - Record Keeping Violations
- B. Federal Employees
- C. “Legal Technicalities”
 - Federal Circuits
 - Deciphering Legal Citations

Using Endnotes

Index