

ETHICS TRAIN-THE-TRAINER

What's Right? What's Wrong? What's the Difference?

Ethics and Character: Issues that Go to the Heart of Policing

"This was an excellent course that far exceeded my expectations. In the future I plan on seeking additional training from ILEA. ILEA is an outstanding organization that clearly wants to improve the law enforcement field. GREAT JOB."

"This was one of the best classes I've ever attended. It was extremely beneficial and I look forward to sharing the information with my agency."

May 9-13, 2005 participants

Course Overview: Successful completion of this four and one-half day program will authorize graduates to present the eight hour Law Enforcement Ethics, the sixteen hour Ethics for Field Training Officers, and four hour In-Service Ethics courses within their own agencies or local/regional academies.

Topics:

- Models for Ethical Decision-making
- Identifying Dilemmas and "Stakeholders"
- The Six Pillars of Character and The Principles of Ethical Policing
- The Condition of Society: What Does it Mean to Policing?
- Higher Standards/Different Standards
- Strategies for Creating a Healthy Ethical Environment
- Understanding the Present through the Classics: Teaching Ethics from Solid Ground

Who Should Attend? Trainers and law enforcement practitioners preparing to teach or lead ethics discussions in their agencies or academies.

Note: This program is best suited for individuals with prior training experience.
