

SCHOOL OF POLICE SUPERVISION

What's a supervisor? What's a leader? What's the difference?

*"Great training, excellent experience, wonderful instructors."
Sgt., Juneau, AK, Police Dept.*

*"... First tier class, best course I have ever attended."
Sgt., Washington Metropolitan Police Dept.*

Course Overview: This course is designed for first-line supervisors and middle-level management. It should be of interest to law enforcement agencies concerned with the professionalism of their management team. This is the only independent four-week school in the nation for police supervisors and recognizes the importance of supervision as a major management function in law enforcement. The curriculum focuses on the transition from "street policing" to management, especially the social and personal adjustments.

Topics:

- Change and the Organization
- Legal Aspects of Discipline
- Motivation
- Basic Statistics
- Street Culture and Supervision
- Community-based Policing
- Legal Liability of the Supervisor
- Stress and Supervision
- Sexual Harassment
- Workplace Discrimination
- Creating a Strong Ethical Environment
- Media Relations
- Police-Community Relations

Who Should Attend: This program is well suited for experienced, newly-promoted or aspiring first-line supervisors, especially those seeking supervisory excellence in a law enforcement environment.

Faculty*: Faculty who teach are invited from the law enforcement and academic communities. The Institute is committed to assembling some of the best faculty to challenge and encourage participants to think "out of the box."
