

47th MANAGEMENT COLLEGE

A Tradition of Accomplishment

There is a word which describes the way in which the Management College can affect a career ... that word is Accomplishment. For almost fifty years, graduates of the Management College have had a powerful influence on the leadership of law enforcement organizations nationwide, and made a significant difference - every day - in their agencies and communities.

The next offering of this extraordinary program - the 47th Management College - will take place January 31 - March 25, 2011, at the headquarters of The Center for American and International Law in Plano, Texas. Among the distinctive features of this course:

Outstanding Faculty Nationally-known faculty representing colleges, universities, criminal justice agencies and government entities from across North America provide an unmatched learning experience. To see the list of faculty click here

Superior Curriculum Designed to prepare senior-level law enforcement managers and administrators for leadership in the complex world of public executives, the Management College provides a challenging and intensive environment in which participants can learn, develop and test a range of success-oriented skills and abilities. College Credit and Professional Accreditation Management College graduates may apply for graduate credit through the University of North Texas. All ILEA courses are accredited through the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education (TCLEOSE). Out-of-state participants often find that their states enjoy a reciprocal training agreement with Texas. To see the full list of ILEA's academic affiliations click here

Accomplished Alumni Graduates of the Management College have a remarkable track record of service and success in the law enforcement profession. To see a partial list of distinguished Management College alumni click here

Tuition Assistance In lean economic times, agencies often experience difficulty allocating funds for education and training. To assist, the Institute for Law Enforcement Administration can, from time to time, provide limited tuition scholarships or "two-for-one" enrollments. For further details on this offer contact the Director, Institute for Law Enforcement Administration at 972-244-3430.
