

ETHICAL DECISION-MAKING
(4 Hour Online Course)
Ethics 100

THIS COURSE MEET THE CALEA ACCREDITATION STANDARDS CONCERNING ETHICS TRAINING.

This course has been approved for 4 hours of TCLEOSE credit.

Top quality on-line ethics decision-making training from the same organization that has brought you excellence in face-to-face training and education in police supervision, management, leadership, ethics and diversity for the past 50 years.

Course Overview: Those who work in the complex world of law enforcement know that ethics and integrity are central elements in every facet of their day-to-day activities. This online program will provide a set of ethical decision-making “tools” that will help officers and supervisors make informed, defensible choices in ethically-challenging situations. In exploring three ethics scenarios, participants will have an opportunity to learn and practice a variety of decision-making models, and to interact with other participants and course faculty.

Topics:

- Tools of the Trade
- Thinking About (And Acting Upon) Ethics in Law Enforcement
- The IACP Code of Ethics
- The A.C.T. Model
- On the Courage to Stand Up in the Face of Resistance
- Stakeholders
- Loyalty vs. Blind Loyalty
- Ethics Check Questions
- Bell ... Book ... Candle
- Three Simulations or Scenarios

Who Will Benefit: Every law enforcement professional, supervisor, or leader (both sworn and non-sworn) will benefit from this course regardless of state, regional, national or organizational affiliation.
