

Summer 2010 Leader Development Series

Designed for the busy law enforcement professional interested in developing or enhancing leadership skills, this series of one-day and two-day programs will provide an opportunity to explore a number of current and emerging workplace management issues.

As agencies seek to strengthen and deepen leadership qualities at every level of the organization, these courses will assist participants in becoming stronger, more confident leaders.

Offered over a three-week period, participants may enroll in one or more individual courses. In June, 2010, the Leader Development Series will include:

Servant Leadership

June 9, 2010 Tuition: $99 ILEA member/$129 non-member
Lecturer: Captain John Thorpe, Irving, TX, Police Department

This session will explore the varied meanings of “leading” and “following,” while emphasizing the role of the manager in creating an environment in which employees can thrive while serving others (both inside and outside the organization).

Fundamentals of Employee Relations: A Practical Guide to Litigation-Free Management (2-day course)

June 16-17, 2010 Tuition: $198 ILEA member/$258 non-member
Lecturer: Mr. Michael Mirarchi, Mirarchi Management Group, Plano, TX

This widely-acclaimed and comprehensive two-day program provides leaders with practical and specific techniques to avoid employment-related legal challenges and liability in a wide variety of employment situations.

Legal Issues: Liability, Civil Rights and Case Law Update

June 23, 2010 Tuition: $99 ILEA member/$129 non-member
Lecturer: Mr. Warren Spencer, Attorney at Law, Euless, TX

This program will provide insights on a range of personal and organizational responsibilities related to supervisory liability and negligence, and an update on Civil Rights Law and other current legal issues of concern to law enforcement managers.

Current and Emerging Human Resources Issues

June 25, 2010 Tuition: $99 ILEA member/$129 non-member
Lecturer: Ms. Cheryl Dunlop, Director of Administrative Services, City of Rockwall, TX
Ms. Diane Wetherbee, City Attorney, Plano, TX

This course will examine strategies for preventing or responding to complaints of sexual harassment and workplace discrimination, and focus on the Fair Labor Standards Act as it governs the work of public employees.

Tuition: For each course day: $99 ILEA member/$129 non-member
For all five days: $449 ILEA member/$589 non-member

Location: The Center for American and International Law, 5201 Democracy Drive, Plano, TX 75024
