

ADVANCED ETHICS: ETHICS, CHARACTER AND INTEGRITY IN LAW ENFORCEMENT
(8 Hour Online Course)
Ethics 200b

THIS COURSE MEETS THE CALEA ACCREDITATION STANDARDS CONCERNING ETHICS TRAINING.

This course has been approved for 8 hours of TCLEOSE credit.

Top quality online ethics decision-making training from the same organization that has brought you excellence in face-to-face training and education in police supervision, management, leadership, ethics and diversity for the past 50 years.

Course Overview: This online course is designed for the law enforcement practitioner who is interested in learning about the ethical underpinnings of the profession. Considerable emphasis will be upon the classics of a selection of the major ethical traditions of the world. We will probe deeply into how and why we form our beliefs concerning what actions are good and desirable in our societies and about a wide range of other issues related to the general topic of law enforcement ethics. Here the participant will be able to take the time to learn about how people look at the sorts of issues that face law enforcement professionals in their current positions, and those that will arise as their careers progress. They will be able to reflect upon how people form their values, their character, their legacies, and will study how ethically healthy groups are formed and how they function.

Topics:

1. Contemporary essays and foundational texts in ethics.
2. Ethics issues that bear upon the law enforcement profession.
3. The views of various philosophers, academics, and professionals as they relate to current ethical problems in law enforcement.
4. Form and defend personal opinions about the resolution of ethical issues in law enforcement.
5. Strategies for strengthening personal character, enhancing ethical leadership skills, and building organizations of integrity.

Who Will Benefit: Every law enforcement professional, supervisor, or leader (both sworn and non-sworn) will benefit from this course regardless of state, regional, national or organizational affiliation.
